

DEPARTMENT OF ZOOLOGY_GFGC, Tumkur

Bhavani Patil

Assistant Professor & HOD

Department of Zoology

GFGC, Tumkur

Vision

The Vision of the Department is “to establish an excellent center of value based teaching-learning, innovation and research by providing a vibrant environment for the holistic development of the students and transforming them into valuable global citizens”.

Mission

The mission of the Department is “to pursue excellence towards creating manpower with high degree of intellectual, professional and cultural development to meet the needs of national and global challenges with special emphasis on sensitizing students towards environmental issues & preservation of natural resources so that they can contribute to sustainable socio- economic growth of the Nation”.

The department has a well-qualified & experienced faculty members. Teaching-learning activities in the department are designed in such a way that they stimulate intellectual curiosity, creativity & innovation in students. Faculty members aim to provide a strong foundation for a better understanding of recent advances in Zoology & its practical significance. The effort of the faculty and well experienced supporting staff is to inculcate critical thinking & analytical skills in students to enable them to pursue higher studies & research in life sciences or related fields of Zoology.

Strength of the Department
No.of Permanent Faculty	01
No.of Guest Faculties	07
Total No. of Students	180

Details of the Permanent Staff

1	Bhavani Patil Assistant Professor & HOD	01
---	--	----

Strategies to involve and inspire students

1. Conducting seminar presentation by students regularly
2. Counseling irregular and slow learners.
3. Practice of giving student projects and assignments.
4. Conducting Centralized test
6. Holding career guidance programmes on a regular basis to support & boost the morale of the students.
7. Conducting field study and excursion
8. Encouraging plantation by students in the campus

Programmes held during 2017-2018

1. Organized a special lecture on Recent Trends In Biology on 06/03/2017.
2. Conducted science day on 03/03/2018.
3. Visited IISC Campus on 10/03/2018.

The Department of Zoology aims to provide quality education in Zoology with different specializations. It seeks to provide skill based programmes to motivate the students for self employment in applied branches of Zoology. It envisions to inculcate spirit of resource conservation by conducting field studies & different projects of local & global interests. It aims to bring about an awareness regarding nature & biodiversity by encouraging students to pursue higher studies & research & help to solve different problems to establish sound & peaceful environment for the society.